

Exploring Human Nature-DVD or On-line Video - this 57 minute video with a menu linked to 20 demonstrations can be shown all or in part to illustrate your curriculum.

Students will see how we tend to be unaware of social influences, making decisions as if operating on the basis of intentional thought yet often choosing to act in irrational ways.

Dr. Philip Zimbardo, Stanford University

Topics:

- How Social Rules Guide Behavior
- First Impressions
- The Bias of Personal Appearance
- Using Appearance to Identify with a Group
- The Power of Group Norms
- The Evil of Inaction
- Going Along to Get Along
- Blind Obedience to Authority

Preview on line now: www.Kantola.com/ExploringHumanNature

To order: 415-381-9363

415-381-9801 (fax)

www.Kantola.com/ExploringHumanNature